

NAREIM FOUNDER AND PAST PRESIDENT FRED HALPERIN PASSES AWAY

Fredric Halperin, beloved Husband, Father, Grandfather, Uncle, and Brother. Fred was born in Indianapolis, Indiana and grew up in Los Angeles, CA where he graduated from Fairfax High School. He was a graduate of UCLA, where he received a Bachelors degree in Political Science and a Certificate in Executive Management from the Graduate School of Management. While at UCLA, he was involved in various student activities and was Senior Class President. He remained a life long supporter of the school financially, serving on various committees, and always the avid fan of Bruins' sports teams.

Fred was the founder and President of the National Association of Real Estate Investment Managers (NAREIM) for 18 years and, prior to NAREIM, he enjoyed a 27-year career with Coldwell Banker Commercial Real Estate, where he served as President of its Management Services division and Regional Manager of its Beverly Hills Brokerage office. He also was an active member of the Institute of Real Estate Management, the International Council of Shopping Centers, The National Association of Realtors, the Building Owners and Managers, and the Urban Land Institute.

Fred was an active member of his community. He served as a member of the Los Angeles Convention and Exhibition Center Authority Commission for 12 years where he held various positions including President during the time of the Convention Center expansion. Fred was the founder of the West Side Luncheon Club and served on several Chamber of Commerce and civic clubs on the West Side.

Fred loved tennis and physical fitness and enjoyed travel, theatre, and reading. His greatest joy was spending time with his family.

He is survived by his wife Carol, son and daughter in-law Michael and Sherry Halperin, his grandchildren Rachel, Sarah, and Andrew, sister Joan and extended family and friends.

Services will be held on Wednesday October 14, 2009 at 1 pm at Hillside Memorial Park and Mortuary, 6001 Centinela Avenue, Los Angeles
